LOVE YOUR ENEMIES. BUT WHO ARE THEY?

ST. LUKE LUTHERAN CHURCH

BOOK STUDY

STLUKEITHACA.ORG

Thursdays | 6:00 PM | Zoom | March 5, 12, 19, & 26

Lent is a season of truth-telling.

This year we will read The Origin of Satan by Elaine Pagels and ask how Christians learned to divide the world into saints and devils – and what Jesus actually teaches about enemies.

This study will help us:

- Break the spell of enemy-creation
- Reclaim the complexity of scripture
- Re-center Jesus' refusal to demonize

Because the church of Jesus does not survive by fear.
It lives by resurrection.

All are invited to participate in this online community book study, starting this Thursday at 6:00 pm on Zoom. We'll be discussing the Introduction through Chapter Two. Come ready to engage in lively conversation and learn what Jesus actually teaches about enemies.

This study will help us:

Service of Holy Communion ~ Sundays at 10:00 am

St. Luke is a Reconciling in Christ Congregation of the ELCA. As a Reconciling in Christ Congregation, the people of St. Luke Lutheran Church are called by God to be a community of Christians, a part of the body of Christ. Because we believe we are one in God's eyes, we welcome the mix of ages, races, gender identities, physical and mental capabilities, and sexual orientations with which God's children are blessed. Everyone is invited to share in God's grace. We rejoice in the knowledge that nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus--not our wealth, nor our poverty, nor our nationality, nor our political convictions, nor whom we love, nor anything else in all creation. We are called to follow God's mission of reconciliation and justice with all humanity, and we celebrate our journey of discipleship with a special appreciation for the privileged responsibility of our campus related ministry.
